First dates are always fun, but picking what to do might be a little stressful. From five-star restaurants, bowling alleys, strawberry picking and wine bars, Miami has no shortage of experiences to ease the awkwardness. Spending a first date doing something fun and interactive will most definitely be memorable and that date might turn out to be the one!

FAENA THEATER

If you're really looking to impress your first date, take them to a show they will never forget! The newest show at the Faena Theater is the Tryst Cabaret, bringing a unique show to the stage that explores love and seduction. The shows typically run from Thursday night through Sunday night, bringing a world-class presentation every night.
